

WEEK 16 DEF STREAMERS

LOOKING FOR TEAMS ON LESS THAN 60% OF ROSTERS IN YAHOO

1 GREEN BAY PACKERS VS NO

With the offense's injuries, this matchup is automatic against most defenses. They failed to surpass 20 points in three games since their bye week. But, face them against this GB defense that has held its opponents to less than 20 points, generated multiple sacks, and forced a turnover in three of its last five games. It's still a top-12 defense this season; this doesn't get much easier as this is one of the best streaming options available this week.

2 HOUSTON TEXANS @ KC

This defense has been playing great recently, coming off another strong performance where they generated multiple sacks and forcing multiple turnovers in three of their last five games. They also held their opponents to under 21 points in three of those same games. Facing a KC offense that has been good enough to win games (hasn't scored more than 21 points in three of their last four), with a hobbled Patrick Mahomes, this could be a sneaky top-12 streaming option despite the risk.

3 ATLANTA FALCONS VS NYG

This one feels rough since I haven't liked this defense for most of this season. However, a matchup against a broken NYG offense tempts me enough to stream them as a last-resort option. Since their bye week, this defense has improved, generating at least four sacks in three straight games while forcing a turnover and holding their opponents to under 14 points in two of those games. While I prefer the above matchups, this is another top-12 option on paper with upside.

4 CINCINNATI BENGALS VS CLE

Coming off their best performance in a while, they will continue to have a favorable matchup against a turnover-prone CLE offense that has failed to surpass 14 points in consecutive games. Since their bye week in Week 12, they have generated a sack and forced a turnover in three straight games while also scoring a defensive touchdown in two of those games. Of course, this defense isn't good, and I wouldn't be streaming them with any confidence beyond the matchup.
