WEEK 11 DEF STREAMERS

LOOKING FOR TEAMS ON LESS THAN 80% OF ROSTERS IN YAHOO

1

PITTSBURGH STEELERS @ PHI

Despite a rough performance last week, they have generated multiple sacks, forced a turnover, and held opponents to under 20 points in their last three games before the bye week. Instead of facing a potential MVP candidate, they face an injured PHI offense that may not be starting its top QB, RB, and WR. Even if Saquon Barkley and Devonta Smith return, I don't have much faith in this offense. With a projected over/under of 38 points, this is a low-scoring matchup, making this defense a solid option to consider.

KANSAS CITY CHIEFS VS ARI

I have been mentioning this defense a bunch recently, and they have been good for the most part, generating multiple sacks, forcing a turnover, and holding opponents to under 14 points in three of their last five games. Facing a depleted ARI offense that failed to score a touchdown last week, this is one of the best options available. They are also a bottom-ten offense in total yards and points scored per game, being double-digit underdogs with a projected over/under of 41 points.

BUFFALO BILLS VS MIA

While I don't like to stream subpar defenses against struggling offenses, I will take that chance against a struggling MIA offense that's in the bottom five in total yards and points scored per game. Add that they're starting a backup QB, and this BUF defense has looked great recently, generating multiple sacks, forcing multiple turnovers, and holding opponents to under 14 points in three straight games in good matchups (BAL/MIN/NYJ). Facing another good matchup, this is one of the better streaming options.

DENVER BRONCOS VS LV

After a few disappointing performances, this defense has a great bounce-back opportunity against a rookie QB who played their first game last week and failed to throw for over 150 yards. Generating multiple sacks and forcing multiple turnovers in three of their last five games, they have top-five upside if Mendoza continues to struggle. If Brock Bowers misses this game, this defense will be one of the top streaming options. But if Bowers plays, this is still a decent play with rest-of-season potential.
